

FINNISH 2011 Remote Sensing Days

The Finnish Remote Sensing Club traditional Finnish Remote Sensing Days is hosted this year by Aalto University. The event takes place on 24-25. November, in Aalto Design Factory, Otaniemi, Espoo.

Everybody are invited to submit a short (one page) abstract for a review by 10. October 2011. Detailed instruction and templates can be found in events home page at <http://www.kaukokartoituskerho.fi/2011>. The abstract should be prepared in English. Authors should also indicate their preference for oral or poster presentation. The oral presentation can be given in Finnish or English, the presentation slides should be prepared in English. The note of acceptance will be posted by 1. November 2011.

Highlighted topics

Remote Sensing for Climate Modeling
Finnish Remote Sensing in Developing Countries
International Application of Finnish Remote Sensing Know-how Natural Disasters and Remote Sensing

Important dates

Abstract submission by 10.10.2011
Abstract acceptance by 1.11.2011
Registration by 10.11.2011

Further information

Email: info@kaukokartoituskerho.fi
<http://www.kaukokartoituskerho.fi/2011>

Program Committee

Jaan Praks, Chair, Aalto University
Anne Leskinen, Sito Oy
Robin Berglund, VTT
Kari Luojus, FMI
Markus Törmä, SYKE
Matias Takala, FMI
Mika Karjalainen, FGI
Matti Möttöus, University of Helsinki
Alfred Colpaert, Univ. of Eastern Finland

Venue

Aalto University Design Factory
Betonimiehenkuja 5
02150, Espoo
Finland

